

Why Are We Here? Why Do We Go to Church on Sunday?

Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

- Hebrews 10:19-25 (TNIV)

What's the Main Point?

We gather on Sundays to fellowship with God as a community.

1. We meet together to draw each other into God's presence.
2. We meet together to remind each other of God's faithfulness.
3. We meet together to encourage each other to persevere in love.
